Two weeks of testing the only affect I got to in all honesty experience, when I wore a high quantity of the stuff, was me being put in a passably pissy feeling, not a real bad feelings, but simply a genuinely negative mood. This is not commonplace personally.

As regarding Pherlure's has an effect on on others? I don't have any clue! Besides obtaining several compliments regarding Pherlure's smell, I never obtained what a seasoned pheromone consumer would be able to recognize as a "hit," nor any palpable sign of sex enthusiasm from the opposite sex, or even from the same sex!! Nothing!

- Needless to say, I was not dazzled.
- I have no need to pay for this to be ostracized!

My opinion, simply because Pherlure's marketing, branding, and marketing of this product is merely Wondrous! Lets face information, Pherlure provides definately completed a first-rate employment marketing this pheromone fragrance! I actually will take my hat off to them because of this effort!
